2. Weekend Deep Work & Full Test Simulation Architecture

Leverage weekend blocks for endurance building, full-length adaptive tests, and multi-hour review.

Weekend Day & Block	Time Allotment	Strategic Activity	Key Milestone Deliverable
Saturday Morning (9:00 AM – 11:30 AM)	2.5 Hours	Official GMAC Adaptive Mock Exam (Strict exam simulation)	Full test under real conditions (no pause, no snacks, exact breaks)
Saturday Afternoon (2:30 PM – 4:30 PM)	2.0 Hours	Untimed Forensic Mock Review (Analyze every right and wrong question)	Record errors in Error Log; update pacing analytics tracker
Sunday Morning (10:00 AM – 12:00 PM)	2.0 Hours	Targeted Weakness Remediation (Drill 30 questions on mock weak areas)	Convert weaknesses identified in Saturday's mock into strengths
Sunday Evening (6:00 PM – 7:00 PM)	1.0 Hour	Weekly Planning & Prep for Upcoming Week (Set schedules & goals)	Prepare study material and review queue for the next 5 days

Total Weekly Hours: Weekdays (5 hrs) + Weekend (7.5 hrs) = 12.5 high-yield hours per week.

3. Commute & Micro-Study Habits (15-Minute Productivity Sprints)

How to utilize travel time, transit, and lunch breaks to gain an extra 3 hours of passive prep weekly.

- Flashcard Drills on Mobile: Use spaced-repetition flashcard apps for math formulas, prime numbers, and CR logical fallacies.
- Business Editorial Reading: Read articles from The Economist, Financial Times, or Scientific American during transit to build RC stamina.
- Mental Math Calculation: Practice doubling, halving, and calculating 15% tips mentally during daily transactions to hone arithmetic reflex.
- Burnout Protection Rule: Take one complete evening off every week (e.g. Friday night) to maintain psychological resilience over 90 days.
